School Identity and Philosophy

This identity was introduced to society by writing the institution's name in the middle area of the circle. The word "Petra" was derived from Greek, taken from Matthew 16:18 which means "Solid Rock". The Logo of PPPK Petra is a triangle inside a circle and a cross on the top of the triangle.

The Meaning of Symbol:

Triangle

Circle

The representation of the Holy Spirit, which identical to everlasting love. It serves as the foundation of the three other essences above.

School Crest

The school crest was designed by the late Mr Chen Jen Hao, a former principal of the school and Mr Liu Kang, a former art teacher, who was a well-known pioneer in the local art scene.

The name De Ming (德明) in Chinese is not merely a translation from the name 'Dunman'. It also draws meaning from the first line of a Confucian classic, 'Da Xue' (大学) which states that the main objective of education is to help people manifest the virtues and morals that are already inherent in them (大学之道在明明德).

The two characters (德明) in the crest written in 'Zhuan' (篆) calligraphy style is the work of Mr Chen Jen Hao. The Chinese 'Zhuan' (篆) calligraphy is ornamental in character and has a history of over 2000 years. Thus it embodies the idea of preserving a tradition. This symbolizes the school ethos, which is, building on and fostering traditional values.

The red symbolizes passion and striving for success. The blue signifies peace and dignity while the circular border represents wholeness and unity, and symbolizes the pursuit of universality, derived from the classic 'Liji Daxue' (《礼记·大学》).
